

Sheep were always on the highway in Provo Canyon making
had to travel in a
surrey & horse. The horses had to be led by hand thru
the herd.

Baaa . . . Baaa . . .

Nowadays, most sheep are trucked from the ranch to the summer range, but reminiscent of the old days this herd walked all the way from Orem through

Provo Canyon to Heber City. Wide open spaces aren't quite as plentiful anymore, so herders had to call on the Orem police and later the Utah Highway Patrol to help supervise the drive.
